

Antisemitism: Then and Now with Charles Gallagher, S.J. and David Shribman

Wednesday, January 26, 2022 | 7:00-8:00 p.m.

Photo by Peter Julian
Join Boston College historian, Charles Gallagher, S.J., as he discusses his new book, Nazis of Copley Square, chronicling a crucial missing chapter in the history of the American far right.

He will be joined by former editor of the Pittsburgh Gazette, David Shribman, whose paper won a Pulitzer Prize in 2019 for its coverage of the tragic shootings at the Tree of Life synagogue

Advanced registration is required • www.concordmuseum.org

Presented in partnership with

Concord Museum Forums are a series of public programs held to foster dialogue on a diverse range of historical, contemporary, and cultural topics that resonate with Concord's history.