Happy Chanukah!

Jerusalem Menorah by Yoram Raanan

"When the holy Temple stood, the light of the menorah (a visible sign of the supernatural light of the Shechinah) emanated from the windows which were uniquely constructed to let light out, rather than in. It illuminated not only the Temple courtyard, but all of Jerusalem. To complete the picture of Jerusalem, there needed to be light in the middle of the scene, the golden light of healing and fellowship and true peace, which we pray will shine again soon from the heart of Jerusalem." Yoram Raanan

The Antisemitism Awareness Team presents: Cultivating Curiosity & Understanding in Difficult Conversations with Shira Hoffer and David Hoffman

Sunday, Nov 3

9:00am – 12:00pm

Location: In person at KS

KS Members Only

This interactive workshop is designed to help us navigate challenging discussions with curiosity and respect. Using videos and role plays, we will explore the differences between debate and discussion, strengthen our skills in seeking mutual understanding, and engage respectfully on sensitive issues, including the Israeli/Palestinian conflict.

Whether you're looking to improve your communication skills or seeking ways to foster positive dialogue across differences, this workshop provides practical tools for meaningful engagement and connection.

Please RSVP by Oct 31 to antisemitism-awareness@keremshalom.org

Kristallnacht (Pogrom Night) Remembrance

With guest speaker Bonnie Stein

Sunday Nov 17

10:30am – 12:00pm

Location: Zoom

Bonnie Stein, the daughter of two Holocaust survivors, has been involved in Holocaust education for 27 years. Bonnie was the President of the Board of Generations After at the Florida Holocaust Museum in St. Petersburg, Florida for 12 years. Bonnie also was a founding member of an International Group of Descendants of Holocaust Survivors.

During her talk, she will share how she became connected with the Florida Holocaust Museum and the Children of Survivors group, and eventually her trip to Berlin, Germany as part of the organization One-By-One which brings together children of survivors and descendants of the Nazi regime. This journey proved to be a life-changing event.

Bonnie speaks about remembrance (when it's valuable and when it's not), what it means to remember in a helpful way, the non-productiveness of blame, and how to move forward even when there are terrible things in our past as well as terrible things still happening in the world.

Lastly, Bonnie speaks about the impact of going to Germany, meeting with descendants of the Nazi perpetrators, and how being part of One-By-One has influenced her life, as well as her message for today.

Transcendentalism for Yankees—and Jews?

L.E.D.* Series with Professor Robert A Gross

Sunday Dec 8

Time: 10:30am – 12:00pm

Location: In Person at KS

Presentation will be followed by refreshments

Professor Robert (Bob) Gross is a leading American historian and Professor Emeritus at the University of Connecticut. He specializes in the social and cultural history of America from the Colonial era through the nineteenth century. He has received the prestigious Bancroft Prize for his book The Minutemen and their World, and numerous national awards as well as fellowships from the Guggenheim, Rockefeller and Howard Foundations, the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the American Antiquarian Society. Bob is a member of Kerem Shalom.

His latest book (2021) is entitled The Transcendentalists and their World. The religious and intellectual movement known as Transcendentalism sprang up in Massachusetts, with Concord as its epicenter, during the 1830s and 1840s. It came to inspire both a new vision of individualism and idealistic efforts for social change, particularly abolitionism and women's rights. In the 1850s and after, Transcendentalism expanded beyond that regional base and spread to national and international audiences.

Did the movement have any appeal to Jews in the mid-19th century United States? Does it have anything to say to Jews today? Bob's talk will offer an accounting of Transcendentalism in Concord and New England, but with a Jewish twist. Transcendentalism, one could say, argued that we are all, each and every one of us, chosen people. How would this square with the collective identity of Jews?

Please join us for a very special talk on how and why Transcendentalism arose during a period of rapid changes in politics, economics, and society and Professor Gross' insights on its significance for Judaism.

Please RSVP by Dec 5 to AP-registration@keremshalom.org

Classes in Judaic Studies

Learn Shabbat Prayers and Songs with Natasha Shabat

Four Wednesdays: Nov 12, 20; Dec 4, 11

4:00 – 5:30pm

Location: Zoom

COST: $60 for the series for KS members; $90 for non-KS members

Learn about the Hebrew and English prayers in Kerem Shalom's prayer book, Shir haLev, Song of the Heart. We'll practice reading transliteration and pronouncing the actual Hebrew. Discover alternate translations of the prayers and songs you've been singing in Hebrew all along.

In this class we'll focus on the Shabbat prayers in Shir haLev, including their English translations, multiple interpretations, and how to pronounce them in Hebrew with confidence. This class will provide a fun, safe, context in which no question is too basic. For example, why is the prayer book called a siddur?

This class will help you dig deeper into the holiness of the Shabbat liturgy, which might even transport you to a new level when you celebrate Shabbat at Kerem Shalom.

Natasha Shabat is an independent scholar who learned Hebrew as an adult and has been teaching Biblical, Prayer Book, and Modern Hebrew full-time to adults since 1997, including at Kerem Shalom and Hebrew College. Since 2020 all of Natasha's classes and private lessons are on Zoom. Natasha is a graduate of Harvard University in Near Eastern Languages and Civilizations.

RSVP: AP-registration@keremshalom.org

Please make checks out to Kerem Shalom.

Drop or mail to: PO Box 1646 Concord, MA 01742

NOTE: If there is enough interest, this 4-week course could develop into a weekly Learn-to-Read Hebrew class.

Upcoming Future Events

Introduction to Torah Chanting With Celia Shneider

Beginning in January 2025, on Monday mornings or evenings, or Thursday mornings—the dates and times to be determined based on responses.

This 6-session class will introduce you to the ancient art of Torah Chanting. About 1300 years ago, the Masoretes of Tiberia developed a system of vowel points and cantillation marks, or trope (Te'amim), which gave pronunciation, melodies and phrasing to Torah readings. You will learn some of the 26 symbols and their melodies so you can be on your way to becoming a Torah chanter.

Prerequisites: Ability to read Hebrew, and keep a tune.

Text: Chanting the Hebrew Bible by Joshua Jacobson, Student Edition, The Jewish Publication Society.

Celia Shneider is a long-time member of KS. She studied Torah Chanting with Cantor Ellen Band 13 years ago, and has since been chanting Torah for Kerem Shalom and several MetroWest Synagogues, for Shabbat, High Holiday services, and B'nai Mitzvot celebrations.

Contact Rosalie@KeremShalom.org to express your interest.

Rosalie will be in touch to let you know the final day and time.

Racial Justice Task Force update

from Deena Whitfield

The Racial Justice Task Force has completed 1500 postcards to help increase the participation of historically underrepresented communities in the electorate. These postcards went to registered voters in Pennsylvania. In addition, we will complete 700 letters to voters in Nebraska and Pennsylvania.

The Food Insecurity group made a donation of $720 to Open Table and is running a food drive for Open Table as well.

The Social Action Group will be running a drive for Household Goods on November 18th and 19th. The committee will be providing a list of appropriate items that are most needed.

Joint Study Sessions with West Concord Union Church and Kerem Shalom

The New History of Jewish-Christian Relations was a 6 week course, conceptualized by Rabbi Darby (KS) and Rev. Hannah C Brown of the West Concord Union Church (WCUC) and taught by Dr. Jacob Meskin of Hebrew College. Dr. Meskin proposed readings and led group discussions of a broad brush stroke of teachings over the last 2000+ years. Participants, members of WCUC and KS, discussed the changing historical perspective of modern theorists of both Christianity and Judaism.

Here are some comments from attendees:

I have learned so much — about the dire, and for so very many fatal, failings in the history of Christianity; but also about the promising contemporary scholarship, both Jewish and Christian, that emphasizes the shared roots, the points of convergence, and the possibilities of reconciliation and mutual respect between two compelling faith traditions.

- Ted Scott (WCUC)

This course was eye-opening for me since I knew so little about the history of Christianity. It increased my understanding of the growth of Christian-based antisemitism through the ages, as well as modern attempts by the Church and theologians to question traditional negative Christian beliefs about Judaism.

Sukkot Celebration 2024/5785!

Many thanks to all the folks who, despite the rain, participated in assembling and decorating this year's beautiful sukkah!

Marla's Corner, or Who Knew?

Last issue's question

What member of the KS community is the founding partner of a company that recently was awarded the prestigious Ruth Silman Award to honor its work in sustainable energy? This KS member has also served the community as a long-time board member.

(drumroll...)

It's Ted Barten, Kerem Shalom's long-serving Treasurer!

Nov/Dec Question

Which current KS member in the first Me'ah class held at KS swore afterwards never to set foot in our synagogue again? Guess what? They have... many, many times!

People ask me, where do I find all these stories? I tell them, "I ask." The next comment is how do I find such unusual people? I think everyone has a story that people are going to say, "no, they really didn't do that?" What is your story? Let me know and I will be delighted to inform the entire congregation!

Kerem Shalom Library

We are continuing to spotlight books on the history of Israel, as well as books written by KS members, located on the shelf under the large, artful image of Jerusalem in the adult library.

Nanci Bell, our volunteer librarian & Rosalie visited the Israel Bookshop in Brookline and brought back the following recently published books:

- Israel 201: Your next-level guide to the magic, mystery and chaos of life in the Holy Land by Joel Chasnoff and Benji Lovitt 2023

- The Israel Warrior: Fighting back for the Jewish State from campus to street corner by Rabbi Shmuley Boteach, 2023
- Israel's Edge: The story of the IDF's most elite unit—Talpiot by Jason Gewirtz 2016
- War Against the Jews: How to end Hamas Barbarism by Alan Dershowitz 2023
- In the Lion's Den: Israel and the world by Danny Danon 2022
- Cooking Together: The Israeli Pantry: recipes originating from the Gaza Envelope. 2024
- Target Tehran: How Israel is using sabotage, cyberwarfare, assassination, and secret diplomacy to stop a nuclear Iran and create a new Middle East by Yonah Jeremy Bob and Ian Evyatar 2023
- Iron Swords, Bleeding Hearts: The fateful war of Israel with Hamas by Michael Bar-Zohar 2024
- Saving Israel: How the Jewish people can win a war that may never end by Daniel Gordis 2009

The library is open whenever Kerem Shalom is open.
Please visit, browse, borrow!

Marla's Cookbook

As a project that has arisen within the KS Writers' Workshop, Marla Richmond is compiling a book of recipes that have been passed down over generations.

She requests your help:

"Do you have a recipe that comes from your mother or bubbe or aunt or friend? It is often found in a tin box with lots of other recipes on index cards or hand written on an envelope or... I am writing a cookbook of recipes that have been handed down through the family. I will acknowledge all accepted recipes. Recipes are preferably Kosher, but it is amazing what one can do to replace traif ingredients. Please send recipes you have tried with a photo of the original recipe and a copy that can be read to marla.richmond@comcast.net.

Send it with love and humor.

Look for a notice of taste testing coming soon!"

Thanks!

Rosh Chodesh (Beginning of the Month) Women's Group

An invitation to Women Members of Kerem Shalom
First Monday of each month, 10:00 – 11:30am

Location: Zoom

Led by Rosalie, Director of Adult Programming

Next meetings: Nov 4, Dec 2

We welcome women from both Jewish and non-Jewish backgrounds.

Would you like to learn a bit more about the Jewish holidays that appear each month and how we can connect to their meanings? You don't need to have a background in Judaic studies or even be familiar with Hebrew. The group is held in English and the friendly, supportive participants find it to be a warm, interesting and inspiring experience. Join us and find out!

"A group of women enter the room or Zoom. A candle is lit. We greet each other by our names and invoke the names of our mothers and grandmothers. We meditate and stretch for a moment. Then we discuss the Hebrew month: holidays or lack thereof; star sign; what is happening with planting, growing and harvesting on many levels. It is calm and quiet. This group of women may never have discussions like this anywhere else. But here we are safe and attached to our history. Jewish women together celebrating our commonality."

Torah Conversations Group

Saturdays, 8:45 – 9:45am

For KS members and non-members

KS Torah Conversations is an ongoing conversation group that meets each Shabbat morning. We welcome you to join us!

No prior knowledge of Torah or Hebrew is required to participate, although attendees are asked to read the week's parasha (Torah portion). Most participants read English translations. The parasha can be read online at Sefaria as well as other sources, and accessed easily via the Hebcal calendar app.

As a guide for discussion, along with reading the parasha, the group chooses one collection of weekly commentaries. For the current year, 5785, it will be Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Commentary. Some participants also enjoy reading from a wide range of other commentaries, many of which are on our resource list. Torah Conversations members take turns facilitating the discussion. The conversations typically flow back and forth between trying to understand the embedded meaning of the weekly parasha and connecting it to questions that have relevance in our lives. Each person's voice is welcomed.

- The group meets each Shabbat morning, with rare exceptions, as long as there are two or more of us who are available to meet.
- Currently we meet on Zoom except for the last Saturday of the month when we meet in-person in the KS library, with the exception of some holidays.
- NOTE: The in-person meeting schedule may be revised from time to time, so be sure to check the calendar on the KS website for the most up to date meeting format.
- Conversations about the week's parasha begin promptly at 8:45am and end at 9:45am. For general conversation, the Zoom room is opened at about 8:35, and the library at about 8:30.
- For Zoom, use the link on the KS website calendar.

Spiritual Inspiration

Facilitated by KS member Carolyn Gold

Spiritual Inspiration is a series of six small group, two-hour virtual meetings, one every other week, beginning in January, 2025 at a time and day that works for participants. Using quotes and poetry from different religions and philosophies to open to the mystery in our lives, we will move out of our heads and into our souls.

Each participant will go on an internal odyssey.

The purpose of Spiritual Inspiration is to find your truth, your own unique path to follow. There is no map. You will know in your heart when you “get there.” (Genesis 12:1-17)

Objectives are for each of us to:

- Deeply listen to our inner lives and align our lives to what we hear
- Develop heart and mind habits that support living well
- Experience more of what’s sacred in our lives

Spiritual Companions: Carolyn and our small group will be the spiritual companions, providing deep listening and deepening questions to help us “embrace our wandering,” as our ancestors did in the desert. Spiritual companions help us penetrate the surface of life and find our utmost truth. (Thomas Merton: Podcast 8) As Moses said, “Truth is not in the heavens...it is in your mouth and on your heart for you to live it.” (Deuteronomy: 30:12-14).

Participants: Four to five individuals seeking to experience life in deeper ways. Your role is to see what is, by openly sharing and deeply listening to yourself. Help others to do the same with questions that help them go deeper. The group sharing builds connection and community. We have the freedom not to fix or repair anything for anyone else.

What You Need for Meetings: Access to zoom, a journal, pens and your commitment to attend six sessions, once every other week, on a Tuesday afternoon. The fee is a voluntary contribution to Kerem Shalom or the organization of your choice.

Testimonials From Past Group Members

- "It's so meaningful, profound and deep. We are all so open; Carolyn's facilitation and small group size helps this happen."
- "The material (poems, quotes, exercises) touches me inside."
- "Each two-hour session is beautiful. Each one helps me see myself."

For questions, or to express interest in participating, contact Carolyn Gold via Rosalie@keremshalom.org

Carolyn Gold is a certified Spiritual Director by Still Harbor. She has worked for five years with a spiritual director, and is a certified executive coach. She has studied Torah for 20 years, and has studied, participated in and led group spiritual direction. She has a passion for spirituality she wants to share.

Kerem Shalom Men's Group

Are you interested in joining or starting a men's group? For over two decades, a small group of men connected with Kerem Shalom have been meeting regularly to witness each other's challenges, joys, and sorrows. Participants are happy to talk with Kerem Shalom members who might be interested in joining this group or starting a new one.

When this group began, its members were in their late 40s, a challenging, heads-down life stage for many men. Members are now in their 60s and 70s, a life stage with new challenges related to work, health, relationships, and family. The group explores these themes in semi-structured, confidential, and non-judgmental conversations which are "advice-free unless asked." Work, children, partners, the man's "role" as caregiver, and adventures are all grist for this mill. And while this is not a religious study group, religious and spiritual experiences are sometimes discussed.

If there is sufficient interest, members of the current group are more than happy to help a new group get underway, then step back and let that group evolve.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the current men's group or in starting a new one, please contact George Peabody at mens-group-info@keremshalom.org.
