The Heart and Soul of Preparing for the High Holy Days

With Rabbi Darby Leigh

Wed, Sept 10, 6:30-8:00 PM in person at Kerem Shalom

What is the work that each of us needs to do to prepare for the Yamim Noraim, the Days of Awe?

In this class we will review the ancient concept of teshuvah and look closely at some texts from Maimonides that will help us think about where we are in our own spiritual work and what we need to do to ensure we are prepared for Rosh Ha-Shannah and Yom Kippur.

Intro to Torah Chanting

With Celia Shneider

Six Wednesdays:

Oct 22 & 29, Nov 5, 12 & 19 (no class Nov 26),
Dec 3

Time: 6:30 – 7:45pm

Location: In person at Kerem Shalom

Learn the fundamentals of Torah Trope, or Te'amim. Celia will introduce you to the approximately 30 trope symbols, their tunes and functions. This ancient system of musical and grammatical notation is a wonderful way to delve into all that the Torah offers us. Become fluent in chanting and then you too will be able to "leyn" (chant Torah) for the community. A great deal of preparation and memorization is involved in Torah chanting, but it will open up new worlds of learning for you and a deep connection to the Torah.

Requirements: Ability to read Hebrew, and sing more or less in tune!

Book: Chanting the Hebrew Bible (Student Edition), by Joshua Jacobson.

Celia Shneider is a classically trained violinist and amateur singer, who studied Hebrew for 6 years as a child. In 2011 she took a Torah Trope class with Cantor Ellen Band, who did her cantorial studies with Joshua Jacobson, author of "Chanting the Hebrew Bible." Celia will teach the melodies from Joshua Jacobson's book.

Growing Older in Community

Continuing the series for Kerem Shalom

Across the Ages and Stages of Life

Growing Older in Community with Kerem Shalom

Since January 2025, the KS Growing Older in Community initiative has been fostering connections and support amongst KS members as we explore, share, learn, and grow older together.

We aim to offer a combination of member-led group conversations, classes, workshops, and print and digital resource collections in the KS library, with particular relevance for those in their later years. Concurrently, we aim to expand and deepen intergenerational connections.

Here's some of what is coming up:

- We are very lucky to host Rabbi Dayle Friedman, author of Jewish Wisdom for Growing Older, for a 3-session class Growing Older with Grit and Grace, plus member-led discussions. The classes and discussions will meet on Monday evenings beginning October 27. (See listing below)
- The ongoing discussion group, Growing Older in Community, will continue to meet monthly on Wednesday mornings. (See listing below)
- More opportunities are in development. Be sure to read the KS Weekly News emails for updates.

The classes will be a combination of Lecture, Text Study, Hevruta (discussing with a partner or small group), and writing exercises with opportunities to reflect with the group. The course curriculum will build from one class to the next, so we ask that those who sign up make every effort to attend each of the classes and follow-up discussions.

“I firmly believe anyone can ‘swim in the sea of Torah’ with proper welcome and opportunity!”

- Rabbi Dayle Friedman

Rabbi Dayle Friedman, the author of Jewish Wisdom for Growing Older, (which you can find in the KS library), brings passion and humanity to teaching, drawing on her rich experience accompanying individuals and families in later life, blending inspiration from the wisdom of Jewish and other traditions with cutting-edge professional perspectives.

The follow up conversations are an opportunity for participants to continue discussing Rabbi Dayle’s teaching.

Marla's Corner, or Who Knew?

Last issue's question

Last spring we asked the question:

Which member of the KS community played in a college wind ensemble that had a performance conducted by Aaron Copeland? Mr. Copeland was very fussy about how a piece he had written should be played.

The answer?

It's (former) clarinetist Carole Greenfield!

Sept/Oct Question

Which members of the Kerem Shalom community had their photograph taken on Pike's Peak while vacationing on the way to a Bar Mitzvah? And they got their picture in the Concord Bridge! Special people, indeed!

People ask me, where do I find all these stories? I tell them, "I ask." The next comment is how do I find such unusual people? I think everyone has a story that people are going to say, "no, they really didn't do that?" What is your story? Let me know and I will be delighted to inform the entire congregation!

Kerem Shalom Library

KS Members in the Arts

Many of us find it especially enjoyable to attend concerts and artist shows in which KS members have an active role. It's fun to greet others at these events. We also have introduced ourselves to those we've seen at services or KS programs but don't personally know. So, we've benefited from a "two-fer"—a chance to enjoy a rewarding cultural activity while also building new connections and reinforcing existing ties with our KS community.

We hope to see you at some of these events listed in our newsletters!

MUSIC

The Concord Chamber Music Society (Nancy Sokol, President) opens its 26th season with a concert on October 12, 3:00 pm, at the Groton Hill Music Center in Groton, Ma. Featuring new CCMS Artistic Directors Jessica Bodner and Daniel Chong, the program includes the transcendently beautiful Quartet for the End of Time, by Olivier Messiaen, written in a German concentration camp during WWII.

Tickets are available at concordchambermusic.org/

KS members Celia Shneider, Robert Karr and Marian Levinstein will be playing in the Concord Orchestra concert on October 18 at 8pm (pre-concert talk at 7:15) and October 19 at 2:30pm. The program's theme is Always In Motion:

Michael Torke: Javelin
Samuel Barber: Symphony No 1
Margaret Bonds: The Montgomery Variations

Tickets are available at concordorchestra.com.

ART

Jill Goldman-Callahan, KS Member and art elective instructor in HSR (Hebrew School Reimagined) will be having a two person show at the Umbrella Arts Center Gallery featuring contemporary abstract paintings called Joy and Peace. The show runs from September 13th to December 17th. Everyone is invited to the opening reception from 6:00-8:00 pm on September 18th.

Jill's paintings transmit peace through their subtle color, shapes and surface. They are products of the enacted rituals of a spiritual painting practice. An antidote to the paradigm of the materialistic world, they embody ecological concerns, a reverence for nature and the importance of human connection.

KS Member Cynthia Katz has a work – “Echoes of Form” – hanging at the Jessica Hagen Gallery in Newport RI, through Sept 14.

We welcome news of any creative arts you are involved in and would like to share with the community.

Rosh Chodesh (Beginning of the Month) Women's Group

An invitation to Women Members of Kerem Shalom
Second Monday of each month,

Time: 5:00pm

Location: Zoom

Led by Rosalie, Director of Adult Programming

Next meetings: Sept 8, Oct 13, Nov 10, Dec 8

We welcome you all!

Would you like to learn a bit more about the Jewish holidays that appear each month and how we can connect to their meanings? You don't need to have a background in Judaic studies or even be familiar with Hebrew. The group is held in English, and the friendly, supportive participants find it to be a warm, interesting and inspiring experience. Join us and find out!

Art by Yorem Raanan

"The opportunity to participate in our Rosh Chodesh group has often been an inspiration for women to join Kerem Shalom. Being in the monthly sessions led by Rosalie is an educational, spiritual, and interpersonal experience that enriches our lives. Rosalie presents a valuable teaching about the meaning of each month, including the history, holy days and holidays, customs and practices. As relevant to our lives today, we appreciate how each month has a place in our communal spiritual path and our personal journeys. Feeling the presence of the Shechinah with us, we respect the holiness of our gatherings. We share in conversations that enhance our own awareness and create a sacred space for deep connection with ourselves, one another, and our community. We welcome you to be with us."

- Iris Werbalowsky Barten

"Rosalie Gerut's Rosh Chodesh group is the reason I decided to join Kerem Shalom. The group explores meaningful, universal themes and how these are related to our personal, interpersonal, and spiritual lives. Group members feel a sense of safety and belonging, and actively listen to one another with kindness and compassion."

- Lisa E. Freed

"Rosh Chodesh has opened a whole new world for me, primarily because of Rosalie. We always begin by introducing ourselves with our Hebrew names and those of our mothers, grandmothers, as far back as we can go. This immediately places us in a Jewish space in which we are conscious of what our ancestors have given us and continue to give us. Then Rosalie presents us with Jewish history and commentaries for each month which we put in the context of our personal lives. Our discussions are lively, caring and supportive. I am grateful for Rosalie's inspiration which guides us each Rosh Chodesh to appreciate how studying our ancient teachings can be applied to our modern lives."

Torah Conversations Group

Saturdays, 8:45 – 9:45am

For KS members. “Not yet” members are welcome, too

KS Torah Conversations is an ongoing conversation group that meets each Shabbat morning. We welcome you to join us! No prior knowledge of Torah or Hebrew is required to participate, although attendees are asked to read the week's parasha (Torah portion). Most participants read English translations. The parasha can be read online at Sefaria as well as other sources, and accessed easily via the Hebcal calendar app.

As a guide for discussion, along with reading the parasha, the group chooses one collection of weekly commentaries. For the current year, 5785, it has been the Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Commentary. A commentary for the new year will be selected soon. Some participants also enjoy reading from a wide range of other commentaries, many of which are also on our resource list.

Torah Conversations members take turns facilitating the discussion. The conversations typically flow back and forth between trying to understand the embedded meaning of the weekly parasha and connecting it to questions that have relevance in our lives. Each person's voice is welcomed. Periodically, someone more learned in Torah than we studies with us, facilitating the conversation. Those will be announced in the KS Weekly and Shabbat News.

- The group meets each Shabbat morning, with rare exceptions, as long as there are two or more of us who are available to meet.
- Currently we meet on Zoom except for the last Saturday of the month when we meet in-person in the KS library (with the exception of some holidays).
- NOTE: The in-person meeting schedule may be revised from time to time, so be sure to check the calendar on the KS website for the most up to date meeting format.
- Conversations about the week's parasha begin promptly at 8:45am and end at 9:45am. For general conversation, the Zoom room is opened at about 8:35, and the library at about 8:30.
- For Zoom registration, see the KS website calendar or click HERE

Kerem Shalom Men's Group

Are you interested in joining or starting a men's group? For over two decades, a small group of men connected with Kerem Shalom have been meeting regularly to witness each other's challenges, joys, and sorrows. Participants are happy to talk with Kerem Shalom members who might be interested in joining this group or starting a new one.

When this group began, its members were in their late 40s, a challenging, heads-down life stage for many men. Members are now in their 60s and 70s, a life stage with new challenges related to work, health, relationships, and family. The group explores these themes in semi-structured, confidential, and non-judgmental conversations which are "advice-free unless asked." Work, children, partners, the man's "role" as caregiver, and adventures are all grist for this mill. And while this is not a religious study group, religious and spiritual experiences are sometimes discussed.

If there is sufficient interest, members of the current group are more than happy to help a new group get underway, then step back and let that group evolve.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the current men's group or in starting a new one, please contact George Peabody at mens-group-info@keremshalom.org.
