Classes in Judaic Studies

Jewish Peoplehood

A series of Hebrew College classes led by Rabbi Neal Gold at Kerem Shalom

Dates: Four Tuesdays: Nov 18, Dec 2, 9 & 16 (no class on Nov 25)

Time: 10:30am – 12pm

Location: In person at Kerem Shalom

Cost: $80 for KS members; $180 for non-members

Registration Deadline: Nov 10

NOTE: Rabbi Neal is a wonderful teacher, but this class will not run unless we have just a few more participants. Please jump in!

Where do the Jewish people come from?

Why is "peoplehood" as important an idea as "religion" for Jews?

How should we understand the diverse cultures of Jewish people in the 21st century?

Join Members of KS and others as we study with excellent teacher and scholar Rabbi Neal Gold

Registration: Go to the Hebrew College Adult Learning webpage for this course and register. KS members, register but DO NOT PAY.

Payment:

- KS members: DO NOT PAY on the Hebrew College registration website. Instead, pay $80 directly to KS (Instructions at the end of this newsletter).
- Non-members: the registration page will accept your payment of $180
- Financial assistance is available through Hebrew College.

Neal Gold teaches and writes about Jewish texts, Israel, and intersections between Jewish life and the contemporary world. He is the Founder and Director of A TREE WITH ROOTS, a blossoming platform that offers online Jewish learning and Jewish community for hundreds of students around North America and overseas.

Neal is a sought-after Visiting Scholar for synagogues and Jewish communities. He is adjunct faculty at Hebrew College, and also teaches in the College's Me'ah program, courses of study that empower adults to understand Judaism on a deeper level. He also is the spiritual leader of Am HaYam - The Cape Cod Havurah in Orleans, MA.

Upcoming Special Events

Kristallnacht Remembrance - How Education Can Transform Antisemitism

With Dr Martina Emme

Sunday Nov 9
10:30am – 12pm
Location: Zoom

In commemoration of Kristallnacht/Pogrom Night, we are honored to welcome Dr. Martina Emme, co-founder of One-by-One. As both a psychologist and educator, Dr. Emme brings a unique and profound perspective to this remembrance - shaped by her personal journey as the daughter of a Nazi family and her transformative work with One-by-One.org.

Students visiting with a Holocaust survivor

She has channeled these insights into meaningful educational engagement with students at the Anna Freud High School in Berlin, Germany, where she initiated an annual Holocaust memorial day event ("GeDenktag") involving over 1,600 students. Her work has facilitated personal visits between students and survivors that have led to lifelong bonds, and she has arranged ongoing interfaith dialogues among Jewish, Christian, and Muslim students. Dr. Emme believes such dialogue is one of the most effective means of combating antisemitism, helping students understand their responsibility as German citizens in light of their nation's Nazi history.

Martina will share stories and photographs from her many initiatives and experiences at the school.

More Joy, Less Oy

An afternoon of storytelling and connection co-hosted by Concord-Carlisle Against Antisemitism

Sunday, Nov 16

3 - 5pm

Location: In person at KS

More Joy, Less Oy! will be an afternoon of laughter, connection, and Moth-style storytelling, co-hosted by Concord-Carlisle Against Antisemitism and Kerem Shalom. The event will feature personal stories told live by members of our community, celebrating the warmth, humor, and resilience woven through everyday Jewish life.

Have a story you want to share, and that you can tell in five minutes or less? We still have slots left! We will also need volunteers to help make this a success. Send a note to info@concordagainstantisemitism.org if you would like to play a part.

All are welcome! This will be a welcoming space for both Jewish and non-Jewish neighbors to come together. Come for the stories, stay for the snacks and conversation. More details to come - please share with friends, and we can't wait to see you there.

As always, thank you for being part of this growing effort. You are helping shape a community where Jewish life is seen, valued, and protected.

Cooking With Hila

Jewish Desserts

Monday, Nov 17

6:45pm

Location: In person at KS

In this hands-on class, you'll learn to make two iconic Jewish treats from scratch. We'll begin with Rugelach - a beloved pastry featuring buttery, yeasted dough that originated in the Jewish communities of Eastern Europe. Then we'll craft Ma'amoul - delicate semolina cookies filled with sweet dates, a treasured recipe brought to Israel by North African Jewish immigrants. You'll leave with a tray of freshly baked treats to enjoy and share with loved ones.

To register, please RSVP to ksadmin@keremshalom.org by Nov 13.
$40/person payable to KS (Payment instructions at the end of this newsletter).

Hila Krikov teaches the culinary program at the Temple's Hebrew school. She is also the founder of Sweet Tahini, a company specializing in tahini-based desserts. Over the past seven years, she has hosted cooking and dining events for adults, sharing her passion for Jewish, Israeli, and Middle Eastern cuisines, along with the rich history, traditions, and stories that bring them to life.*

Class size is limited to 8 people and the class will not run unless the required number of participants is met.

Myths and Facts About Protecting Yourself Online

An L.E.D* program with KS Member Sandy Carielli

Sunday, Nov 23

10:30am-12pm

Location: In person at KS

The number of cybersecurity breaches and scams can be overwhelming...and so can the range of guidance about what actions to take and what to worry about. In this session, Forrester Research Vice President & Principal Analyst and Kerem Shalom member, Sandy Carielli will share some of her favorite best practices for your personal cybersecurity, talk about some of the latest scams and how to avoid them, and dispel some persistent cybersecurity myths. Sandy also will share stories about breaches and security incidents, provide guidance on assessing your own risk, and point out things we do every day that make it easier or more difficult for attackers.

As a vice president and principal analyst at Forrester, Sandy Carielli advises security and risk professionals on application and product security. She has over 15 years' experience in the security industry, working in software engineering, consulting, product management, and technology strategy roles. Sandy is a coauthor of the Industrial Internet Consortium's IoT Security Maturity Model and has spoken at the RSA Conference, SOURCE Boston, ISSA International, and many other security events.

Join us for this highly informative and practical presentation on ways to protect yourself from the ever-proliferating forms of online attacks.

Light refreshments will be available.

Peace in Dark Times With Carolyn Gold

Sunday, Dec 7
10am – 12pm
Location: Zoom

Carolyn ran this session in September, and it was so well received that folks asked if she would do another session. You ask, we deliver!

Does the news cause you suffering?

In a two-hour, interactive zoom session, we will:

- See why we have darkness & why we must challenge it
- Learn how to transform suffering into creative action and
- Plan steps to create inner and outer peace.

We will use transformation techniques from The Bal Shem Tov, the Torah, and William Bridges' Transition Model. From a list of ideas to create peace, inspiring quotes from Ukrainians and a poem, we will jump start our own plans for an inner and a broader peace.
(Bring a pen and paper)

Carolyn Gold is an entrepreneur, certified spiritual director and executive coach.

I was transformed by this professional class. The slides were beautiful and the helpful questions led to personal exploration. This climate of tension and distress we are currently experiencing became opportunities to examine how to cope, to act and to support each other. I hope she will give this class again and help more of our community.

- Cheryl Steinberg

Thank you so very much for a very important and excellent session. The creative and inspiring presentation generated meaningful discussion and a sense of community - while the challenges we face in these times remain prevalent and all too real, the class highlighted means to improve our coping and facilitation of change.

Growing Older in Community

Continuing the series for Kerem Shalom

Across the Ages and Stages of Life

Growing Older in Community with Kerem Shalom

The KS Growing Older in Community initiative fosters connections and support amongst KS members as we explore, share, learn, and grow older together.

We aim to offer a combination of member-led group conversations, classes, workshops, and print and digital resource collections in the KS library, with particular relevance for those in their later years. Concurrently, we aim to expand and deepen intergenerational connections.

Marla's Corner, or Who Knew?

Last issue's question

Did you guess who took the tram to the top of Pike's Peak (and got their picture published in The Concord Bridge)?

It was Richard and Meryl Schwartz – Meryl was wise enough to skip the tram-ride to the top!

Nov/Dec Question

Which member of the KS community, though not now thought of as an artsy person, grew up with a professional artist mother? This member learned enameling, assorted crafts and several types of printing, and as a high-schooler, had a business printing silk-screened posters for local events.

People ask me, where do I find all these stories? I tell them, "I ask." The next comment is how do I find such unusual people? I think everyone has a story that people are going to say, "no, they really didn't do that?" What is your story? Let me know and I will be delighted to inform the entire congregation!

An invitation to Women Members of Kerem Shalom

Second Monday of each month,

Time: 5:00pm

Location: Zoom

Led by Rosalie, Director of Adult Programming

Next meetings: Nov 10, Dec 8

We welcome you all!

Would you like to learn a bit more about the Jewish holidays that appear each month and how we can connect to their meanings? You don't need to have a background in Judaic studies or even be familiar with Hebrew. The group is held in English, and the friendly, supportive participants find it to be a warm, interesting and inspiring experience. Join us and find out!

"The opportunity to participate in our Rosh Chodesh group has often been an inspiration for women to join Kerem Shalom. Being in the monthly sessions led by Rosalie is an educational, spiritual, and interpersonal experience that enriches our lives. Rosalie presents a valuable teaching about the meaning of each month, including the history, holy days and holidays, customs and practices. As they are relevant to our lives today, we appreciate how each month has a place in our communal spiritual path and our personal journeys. Feeling the presence of the Shechinah with us, we respect the holiness of our gatherings. We share in conversations that enhance our own awareness and create a sacred space for deep connection with ourselves, one another, and our community. We welcome you to be with us."

- Iris Werbalowsky Barten

"Rosalie Gerut's Rosh Chodesh group is the reason I decided to join Kerem Shalom. The group explores meaningful, universal themes and how these are related to our personal, interpersonal, and spiritual lives. Group members feel a sense of safety and belonging, and actively listen to one another with kindness and compassion."

- Lisa E. Freed

"Rosh Chodesh has opened a whole new world for me, primarily because of Rosalie. We always begin by introducing ourselves with our Hebrew names and those of our mothers, grandmothers, as far back as we can go. This immediately places us in a Jewish space in which we are conscious of what our ancestors have given us and continue to give us. Then Rosalie presents us with Jewish history and commentaries for each month which we put in the context of our personal lives. Our discussions are lively, caring and supportive. I am grateful for Rosalie's inspiration which guides us each Rosh Chodesh to appreciate how studying our ancient teachings can be applied to our modern lives."

Torah Conversations Group

Saturdays, 8:45 – 9:45am

For KS members. "Not yet" members are welcome, too

For Zoom Reg, see the KS website calendar or click HERE

KS Torah Conversations is an ongoing conversation group that meets each Shabbat morning. We welcome you to join us! No prior knowledge of Torah or Hebrew is required to participate, although attendees are asked to read the week's parasha (Torah portion). Most participants read English translations.

The parasha can be read online at Sefaria as well as other sources, and accessed easily via the Hebcal calendar app.

As a guide for discussion, along with reading the parasha, the group chooses one collection of weekly commentaries. Some participants also enjoy reading from a wide range of other commentaries. Here is our resource list.

Torah Conversations members take turns facilitating the discussion. The conversations typically flow back and forth between trying to understand the embedded meaning of the weekly parasha and connecting it to questions that have relevance in our lives. Each person's voice is welcomed. Periodically, someone more learned in Torah than we studies with us, facilitating the conversation. Those will be announced in the KS Weekly and Shabbat News.

- The group meets each Shabbat morning, with rare exceptions, as long as there are two or more of us who are available to meet.
- Currently we meet on Zoom except for the last Saturday of the month when we meet in-person in the KS library (with the exception of some holidays).
- NOTE: The in-person meeting schedule may be revised from time to time, so be sure to check the calendar on the KS website for the most up to date meeting format.
- Conversations about the week's parasha begin promptly at 8:45am and end at 9:45am. For general conversation, the Zoom room is opened at about 8:35, and the library at about 8:30.

Kerem Shalom Men's Group

New members invited!

Are you interested in joining or starting a men's group? For over two decades, a small group of men connected with Kerem Shalom have been meeting regularly to witness each other's challenges, joys, and sorrows. Participants are happy to talk with Kerem Shalom members who might be interested in joining this group or starting a new one.

When this group began, its members were in their late 40s, a challenging, heads-down life stage for many men. Members are now in their 60s and 70s, a life stage with new challenges related to work, health, relationships, and family. The group explores these themes in semi-structured, confidential, and non-judgmental conversations which are “advice-free unless asked.” Work, children, partners, the man's “role” as caregiver, and adventures are all grist for this mill. And while this is not a religious study group, religious and spiritual experiences are sometimes discussed.

If there is sufficient interest, members of the current group are more than happy to help a new group get underway, then step back and let that group evolve.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the current men's group or in starting a new one, please contact George Peabody at mens-group-info@keremshalom.org.
